

Wireless Access Policy

Lower Macungie Library provides free wireless Internet access for users with laptops/mobile devices capable of receiving wireless signals.

- Patrons using laptops or mobile devices are expected to use the library's wireless access in accordance with the Library's Computer / Internet Use Policy. All users are expected to use the library wireless access in a legal and responsible manner.
- Patrons shall not violate any state or federal statute including those regarding obscenity, sexually explicit material, or the viewing or delivery of materials that are deemed harmful to minors.
- Information available via the Internet may be protected by copyrights or trademarks; use of such information must not violate any copyright or trademark law. Library users are responsible for any consequences of copyright infringement through their use of the Library wireless network, and may not use the Library network for any unlawful purposes.
- Use of the wireless network is at your own risk and the library assumes no responsibility for damage, theft, or loss of any kind to the user's equipment, software, or data files while using the library's wireless network.
- The wireless network is an unsecure connection. It is the responsibility of the laptop/wireless device owner to provide anti-virus and firewall protection when using the Internet via the wireless network. The library is not responsible for damages incurred for incorrect, insufficient or incomplete security settings or anti-virus software. Wireless users assume all risks in this regard.
- In compliance with requirements of the Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA), the library filters all computers with Internet access, including those connected via the library's wireless network.
- Due to liability issues, library staff cannot configure or troubleshoot issues with connectivity, etc. on your personal equipment. The Lower Macungie Library is not responsible for any changes you make to your computer's settings.
- The library reserves the right to suspend wireless use or other library privileges for anyone who willfully violates library policies and procedures.

To preserve the ability to meet Library needs under changing conditions, the Lower Macungie Library Board reserves the right to modify, augment, delete or revoke any and all policies, practices and statements at any time without notice.
